February Highlights

- » Despite some volatility the last week, equities overall had a strong month.
- » The yield curve steepened once again as rates on shorter-term bonds remained relatively stable while those associated with longer-term instruments increased as prospects for the re-opening of the U.S. economy seemed to gain momentum.
- » On the commodity front, gold tumbled a bit during the month while the price of oil surged due to weather and re-opening related factors.
