How to add a card into Google Pay

1. Navigate to the Google Play Store then download and install Google Pay. From the app, tap the Add icon to add a card.
2. Line up the card in the photo viewer and take the picture.
    a. Alternatively, tap Add Manually then enter the required into (e.g., card number, expiration date, etc.).
3. Enter the 3-digit security (CVC) number on the back of the card.
4. Enter the street address.
5. Confirm the card details then tap Continue.
6. Scroll through and read the Terms of Service then tap Accept.
7. If no screen lock is currently set up on the device:
    a. A screen lock is required to use Google Pay.
    b. If the screen lock is ever disabled, you're prompted to reset it or all cards are removed.
        i. Tap Activate.
        ii. Select the preferred screen lock type then follow the onscreen instructions for setup.
8. If presented, enter the re-enter a 4-digit Payments PIN.
9. The card is now visible in Google Pay.
10. You may be prompted to call the call center.
11. Touch DONE to complete the process.

Paying with Google Pay

When you're ready to pay, unlock your device and tap the phone against the Google or NFC-compatible logo on the terminal. When the check mark appears above your card, the transaction is complete.